EStAL

European State Aid Law Quarterly

EStAL was established in 2002 as the first pan-European publication for State aid law and is now recognised as the leading journal in the field. It offers up-to-date analysis of the latest developments in EU law, jurisprudence, and policy. An extensive network of correspondents provides the reader with articles, case law annotations, and reports on State aid control in the Member States.

EStAL successfully serves as a forum for open debate and reflection on State aid law and policy, for and between experts from private practice, academia, the judiciary, and officials of the EU institutions and Member States.

Get the latest analysis on:

- The evolution of the concept of State aid
- Market Economy Investor Principle (MEIP)
- Services of General Economic Interest (SGEI)
- Procedural aspects of State aid Law
- Sectorial Guidelines

The latest in State aid developments:

- Commission Decisions
- EU rule reforms
- ECJ jurisprudence
- EU legislation and regulations
- National developments

training

Lexxion's State aid events offer the opportunity to meet high-level experts and engage with the European community to exchange best practices and disseminate knowledge on highest standards. Participants enjoy direct contact to the speakers and are interactively involved in all sessions. Presentations, group exercises and case studies provide a comprehensive analysis.

European State Aid Law Institute (EStALI) was founded in 2002 to offer a platform to discuss the latest developments with the most acknowledged experts from the European Commission, European Court of Justice, Member States' authorities, academia and legal practice.

- EStALI Experts' Forum on New Developments in EU State Aid Law in Brussels - June
- EStALI Autumn Conference

Small-scale intensive trainings for public officials and legal experts. All trainings are developed and chaired by our Academic Director Phedon Nicolaides, Professor at the College of Europe, Bruges and at the University of Maastricht. We apply the Lexxion Training method combining the three stages of learning:

- Identification of the main points or principles
- Appreciation of the complexities and limitation of the principles, and
- Application of the principles.

IN-HOUSE TRAININGS by Lexxion

Let us organise a training focused on your individual needs.

- Your choice: Design the seminar with us and decide on topics, speakers, and format.
- Your house: Focus exclusively on topics that are important for your institution, and discuss sensitive issues in a confidential atmosphere.
- Your team: Train a group of employees simultaneously to ensure that everyone is on the same page.
- Your budget: Eliminate all travel and hotel costs.

★ Breaking News

The StateAidHub brings together summaries of the latest judgments and decisions, news from the Commission, comment, and opinions from those in the field as well as upcoming events and calls – all in one convenient location.

★ An engaged community

State aid experts from across the EU and beyond are invited to participate in the StateAidBlog, as well as comment on the featured blog of State aid expert Phedon Nicolaides' State Aid Uncovered. Contributions are welcome on a rolling basis – the more current and exciting the better!

★ An evolving perspective

As the State aid landscape changes and develops, so does the StateAidHub. Something controversial going on in your area? Get in touch and create some hubbub about it.

★ Networking opportunities

Check out our State Aid Community section to see who's talking and visit our events page to make sure you're right where the action is.

★ Lexxion publisher's reputation

As an initiative of Lexxion, the publisher of EStAL, we are determined to invest the energy and expertise from the journal in keeping you informed and giving you – as experts – a free of charge forum to voice your thoughts and ideas. The StateAidHub is maintained in line with Lexxion's high editorial standards.

EStIF

European Structural and Investment Funds Journal

With the Programming Period 2014-2020, the European Structural and Investment Funds Journal (EStIF) responds to the growing need for information exchange between the various stakeholders involved. It offers a platform for hands-on expertise in structural policy, and encourages knowledge exchange between European institutions and Member States in the field of ESI Funds.

EStIF combines specialised articles on: The Programming Period 2014-2020 · Management, Implementation & Control of ESI Funds · Best Practices and Experiences from Member States & Beneficiaries

CALL FOR PAPERS

Following the approach from practitioners to practitioners, EStIF offers a platform for hands-on expertise in structural policy, and encourages knowledge exchange in the field of ESI Funds. For the upcoming issues, submissions tackling the following topics are particularly welcome:

- Lessons learnt from the 2007-2013 Programming Period for efficient Management and Control of ERDF, ESF, CF, EAFRD, and EMFF
- Analysis of the New Regulation of ESIF and Main Challenges for EU Funds Managing Bodies
- Financial Control of ESI Funds in Practice (Procedures, Eligibility of Expenditure, First and Second Level Controls, Audits, etc.)
- Handling Irregularities and Fraud Cases
- Territorial and Urban Approach – Involving Local Actors into the Cohesion Policy

We will be glad to answer your questions and discuss your article proposals. Please contact us via email at: estif@lexxion.eu

Events on European Funds

In addition to our State aid events, our EStIF workshops and conferences for Managing Authorities, Intermediate Bodies and their legal advisors are vital in 2014-2020: Innovative funding instruments and their interplay with the reformed State aid regime and public procurement requirements are a source of legal uncertainty. Improve the management, audit and control of ESI Funds and ensure high absorption rates of available funding.

Annual Conference on ESI Funds

The high-level Conference on ESI Funds, taking place each autumn in Brussels, provides an excellent platform for latest developments, best practice, exchange and networking among ESI Funds experts on EU, national and regional level. This European Conference gives you the opportunity to exchange views and experiences with the current regime as well as network with around 100 practitioners from all Member States.

Interactive Workshops across Europe

Many workshops led by experienced trainers for up to 25 participants throughout the year and across Europe will in depth discuss the crucial topics related to the management and control of ESI Funds:

- Monitoring & Performance Evaluation
- Result-based Management
- Financial Management
- Audit Requirements
- Financial Instruments
- Risk Finance for R&D&I
- The Use of Simplified Cost Options
- Major Projects and Cost-Benefit Analyses
- Compliance with State Aid and Public Procurement Rules
- Handling Irregularities and Preventing Fraud
- Closure of Previous Programming Period(s)

IN-HOUSE TRAININGS by Lexxion

We would also be delighted to come to your country and design an in-house training together with your organisation.

EPPPL

European Procurement & Public Private Partnership Law Review

Public Procurement and Public Private Partnerships are major legal and policy instruments of public sector management. They provide for procedural and substantive interactions with private operators necessary for the effective delivery of public services. Regulatory efforts are constantly made at EU level to coordinate and rationalise the very varied national systems.

The European Procurement and Public Private Partnership Law Review (EPPPL) is a peer-reviewed journal that provides detailed coverage on both national and EU Legislation and Regulation, governing Public Procurement and PPPs – the major legal and policy instruments of public sector management. EPPPL authors analyse and interpret the latest events in Public Procurement and PPP, including the implementation of EU rules in the Member States, the interpretation of EU and national policy initiatives, and the interaction of Procurement mechanisms with the award and formation of PPPs.

The editors of the EPPPL are pleased to invite you to contribute to the upcoming issues of our journal with articles (20-25 pp.) or case-law annotations (8-15 pp.) Find out more on www.lexxion.eu/eppl.

: EVENTS ON PUBLIC PROCUREMENT

Lexxion offers small-scale workshops and trainings for procurement experts in the field of remedies, EU Funds, and State aid. In small group sessions, the trainings aim to support public administration in the implementation of European policies through creating a platform for knowledge exchange and sharing of best practice.

EDPL

European Data Protection Law Review

The EDPL provides a practical and intellectual forum to discuss, comment, and review all issues raised by the development and implementation of data protection law and policy in the EU Member States.

The journal reports on key legislative developments and addresses relevant legal, regulatory, and administrative progress in EU Member States and institutions. Important judgments that shape the interpretation and application of EU law in this field are identified and analysed, particularly judgments by the European Courts, international courts, and tribunals such as the WTO's Dispute Settlement Body and higher national courts.

EDPL reports on the law and policy governing:

- Privacy and data protection
- Freedom of information, open data and re-use of information
- Civil liberties issues
- Data processing
- Data transfers
- Technology issues

: EVENTS ON DATA PROTECTION

Lexxion Publisher organises events in the area of Data Protection. Use this opportunity and discuss the latest developments in this field with leading experts, such as legal practitioners from national and international law firms, government officials, and judges as well as legal experts from domestic, European and international courts.

ENLR

European Networks Law and Regulation Quarterly

ENLR is a pan-European legal journal dedicated to the networks industries. Traditionally organised as State monopolies, the railway, telecommunication, energy, water, and postal sectors are all undergoing similar processes of structural transformation. This makes a horizontal and comparative approach most profitable and relevant for all practitioners.

ENLR focuses on competition law, antitrust law and State aid law as well as network regulation. It provides the reader with detailed coverage of all significant legal and policy developments in the network industries across the EU in the form of articles, case-law annotations, book reviews and country reports. Leading authorities from the public sector and private practice as well as academic experts discuss legal and policy developments in the EU and other regions of the world engaged in the process of liberalisation.

The editors of the European Networks Law and Regulation Quarterly (ENLR), a pan-European publication dedicated to the network industries, are honored to invite you to contribute to the upcoming issues of our journal.

The ENLR reports on the law and regulation of all network industries, most significantly:

- Railways and transportation networks & downstream services
- Electronic communications networks & downstream services
- Energy networks & supply
- Water distribution and infrastructure
- Logistics and postal services
- Hydrocarbons' infrastructure and distribution

TYPES OF CONTRIBUTIONS

CCLR

Carbon & Climate Law Review

The Carbon & Climate Law Review strikes a balance between the interests of practitioners, especially those engaged in the rapidly evolving carbon market, and a more doctrinal focus, alternating legal policy recommendations with timely articles on legal aspects of carbon trading and other dimensions of greenhouse gas regulation.

CCLR brings together representatives from the legal discipline and other stakeholders in one specialised journal, allowing them to engage in a dynamic debate on the law of climate change.

Zeitschrift für Stoffrecht

Seit 2004 setzt sich die „StoffR“ mit diesem komplexen Rechtsgebiet auseinander – vom Biozidrecht über das Pflanzenschutzmittelrecht, Lebens- und Futtermittelrecht, Arzneimittelrecht bis hin zum Kosmetikrecht und dem bedeutenden Thema REACH. Die Beiträge richten sich in erster Linie an das Fachpublikum aus den betroffenen Industriezweigen und Behörden sowie an spezialisierte Rechtsanwälte und Berater. Die wissenschaftliche Herangehensweise macht die „StoffR“ aber auch zu einem interessanten akademischen Forum für Lehre und Forschung.

I+E

Zeitschrift für Immissionsschutzrecht und Emissionshandel

Schadstoffe in Luft und Boden, Lärmeinwirkungen und Gewässerverunreinigungen sind zunehmende Belastungen für Mensch und Natur. Dem muss bei der Anlagenzulassung und -überwachung Rechnung getragen werden. Die Zeitschrift „I+E“ beleuchtet vierteljährlich die aktuellen Entwicklungen des Immissionsschutzrechts, des technischen Immissionsschutzes sowie des Emissionshandels. Fundierte Fachbeiträge informieren Behörden, Betriebsbeauftragte, Vorhabenträger und Unternehmen sowie deren Berater über Themen wie Luftreinhaltung, Lärmschutz, Störfallrecht, Anlagenrecht, Strahlenschutz und Energienutzung.

Die Energiewende erfordert neben anderen Maßnahmen einen beschleunigten Ausbau der Leitungsnetze. Ein Umsteuern in der Stromversorgung auf erneuerbare Energien und ohne die Kernenergie als Grundlastträger kann nur gelingen, wenn die Übertragungsnetze massiv ausgebaut werden. Da in der Vergangenheit trotz erkannten Bedarfs der Bau dieser Leitungen nur schleppend vorangekommen ist, hat der Bundesgesetzgeber durch den Erlass des Netzausbaubeschleunigungsgesetzes (NABEG) reagiert. Dieser Kommentar erläutert die Vorschriften umfassend und stellt die erforderlichen Verknüpfungen zu anderen Regelungen zum Netzausbau her.
